Business Highlights
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The nation's economy ended 1964 at record levels despite a fourth-quarter slowdown caused principally by auto industry strikes in October and early November, according to the Commerce Department.
However, the economy grew only half as fast in the final quarter as it did in the previous three quarters of 1964.
NEW YORK: The Treasury gold reserve declined $200 million in the week ended Jan. 12, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York reported. The decline appeared to reflect France's decision to convert an additional $150 million of its U. S. dollar holdings into gold.
NEW YORK: International Telephone and Telegraph Co. plans to acquire the out-lease firm of Avis, Inc. in a stock swap transaction. The deal would lead to a merger of the two companies, creating a new company, the leading car rental company in the country.
WASHINGTON: The Securities & Exchange Commission proposed that stock brokers and dealers be required to keep at least $5,000 on hand to protect their customers against losses. For firms dealing solely in mutual fund shares, the minimum capital requirement would be $2,500.

A thought for the day: British statesman Alan Herbert once said: "The critical period of matrimony is breakfast time."

SEEN AND HEARD....
The words in big type that said "Twist to get top off."
The next time it will be just the opposite and we will be twisting up a storm, when we should be prizing.
One top thought that it had us beaten, one time, but we fooled it and used the can opener and just opened the thing like it was a can. Top should know better than to think they can fool husbands.
As a last resort we could, of course, read the directions. This reminds me of the saying "When everything else fails, follow the directions."
One executive to another: "I wanted my son to share in my business, but the government beat him to it."
What we don't know about a car will fill a book.
Just as Will Rogers said, "Everybody is ignorant about something." A car is just one of the things we are ignorant about.
Tried to use some of those cables from one battery to another to get a car started and we couldn't think whether you connected the like poles or the unlike poles.
Fixing them one way a lot of sparks flew out and the cables started smoking and then we tried them the other way and sparks flew out and the cables started smoking.
We finally used some super brain power and figured that we should hook the negative to the negative and the positive to the positive. The only thing we could not figure out was why sparks flew all over the place when we connected the cables. The electrocution of everything within ten feet was imminent, including ourselves.
In the final outcome we used even more brain power and called the garage man.
Bob Carpenter, the telephone man sent us a new telephone yesterday.
Ours got to where it would green every time you dialed a number. It was the kind of screen that made your hair stand on end. The screen sounded something like some one drawing a finger nail across a blackboard.
We didn't mind the screen when we dialed 1, 2, or 3, but throw in a couple of 9's or 7's and the nerve took a beating.

Ohio Valley Conference Race Is Not Over By A Long Shot As Murray Trims Eastern 86-84

Hold your tickets, folks: the Ohio Valley Conference race isn't over yet.
Just when Eastern Kentucky appeared on the verge of making it a runaway by knocking off all its prime challengers on their own floors, the Maroons came a cropper at Murray last night, 86-84.
Coupled with Western Kentucky's 93-65 trouncing of Morehead at Bowling Green, that left Eastern and Western deadlocked for first place in the OVC with 4-1 conference standings.
Kentucky's Wildcats at last took a hand in a conference race, upsetting Auburn, 73-67, at Lexington to knock the Plainsmen out of first place in the Southeastern Conference chase—and at the same time keep themselves at least in contention.
Tennessee Tech defeated Austin Peay, 85-63, in another OVC tilt while the Berea-Campbellville game was postponed because of weather and travel conditions.
Eastern appeared to have its fifth straight OVC victory wrapped up at Murray until the Thoroughbreds broke loose with 10 straight points to graze a 79-75 lead. A pressing, two-on-one defense that forced Eastern into repeated errors did the trick.
The scoring was strangely balanced with John Nancie, Herb McPherson and Stew Johnson tallying 23, 22 and 21 points respectively for Murray; while Bill Walton, Lee Lemos and Ed Bodkin scored the identical figures for Eastern—23, 22 and 21.
Coach Cal Luther's men, dwarfed by the giants from front running Eastern, stayed in the game for the first half. Eastern moved to a lead of eight points with 11:36 left in the half when 6' 1" Bill Walton dropped in a free throw.
Murray matched baskets however, then crept closer to knot the game at 31-31 with six minutes left.
The Racers went into the lead 37-33 when Gohsen and Johnson knotted the score 39-39 as the half ended.
With the second half underway Murray went into the lead by seven points 58-51 as Gohsen connected two back to back but big Bob Tolson's lone basket put Eastern out in front again 61-60 with nine and one-half minutes in the game.
The two teams matched points but with a little over three minutes left Nancie, dumped in a basket and the Racers were able to maintain the lead until the final horn.
Murray hit 34 of 69 from the field for 49.3 per cent with 18 free throws while the Maroons got 36 of 69 from the field for 52.2 per cent. They connected, on 12 free throws. Eastern had firm command of the backboards 41 to 33.
McPherson got 10 rebounds, Johnson 8 and Nancie 8 while Bodkin led with 13.

Johnson 5 5-7 21
Nancie 2 1-3 5
McPherson 9 5-6 23

try, again as they attempt to reverse a 67-57 defeat at Cincinnati early in the season.
A victory would keep the Cardinals in contention in the tough MVC race.

BELK'S

Dear Abby . . .

Retreat!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I work for a fairly large company. Every year each employee is supposed to get an eight-pound ham. Last year my ham looked kind of small for eight pounds, but I didn't say anything about it. This year my ham also looked small, so I took it home and weighed it and it was only six pounds, four ounces. I took it back to the department head and told him if the company bragged that they gave their employees eight-pound hams, the hams should weigh eight pounds. He became very angry with me and told me I ought to be ashamed of myself, and I should have taken the ham and kept it. Don't you think I did the wrong thing? Or was the department head in the wrong? What do I do now?

GYPPED
DEAR GYPPED: If the ham had been labeled "EIGHT POUNDS" by the supplier, then the company was gyped and the department head should have used his and thanked you for revealing it. But if the company "bragged" that they gave eight-pound hams, and didn't then the deal was something less than kosher. If I were you, I'd forget it.

DEAR ABBY: What can be done about a man who has fantastic imagination? We are in our seventies and have known him all our lives. He will sit and tell folks all about his "experiences" in the war, and he has never been in service. He also tells people that he helped bring elk to our state, and the elk were here before us.

EMBARRASSED
DEAR EMBARRASSED: If he is only imagining these things, pity him. If he is lying, pity him. If he is a sick man, pity him. That is a sickness of the soul.

DEAR ABBY: Read the letter signed "TROUBLE AT HOME" from the 19-year-old girl who was dating a 27-year-old man who said he was separated from his wife. That letter really hit home here. When I was 19 I met a man of 25. We dated a year before he found out he was married and had two children. He said he was trying to get a divorce because he and his wife couldn't get along. I continued dating him against my own conscience and my parents' wishes. I spent many sleepless nights wondering how much longer I ed over the business season. Others present were Mrs. Kert Simpson, Miss Jean Cooper, Miss Joan Cooper, Mrs. James Rogers, Mrs. L. D. Cook, Jr., Mrs. Bruce Wilson, and Mrs. Billie Erwin.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, February 11, in the home of Mrs. Billie Erwin.

would have to wait. He kept telling me it wouldn't be much longer. Well, I am 23 years old and six months' pregnant, and still no divorce. I haven't even seen him in three months. Oh, he calls me once a month to see how I am. Before this happened he couldn't get through a day without calling me. Also, he now has three children instead of two. So, Miss Trouble At Home, take it from someone who is in real trouble—Listen to Abby, and wait until AFTER the divorce to see him again. And then, don't rush into anything. It could save you a lot of heartache. SHATTERED DREAMS

DEAR ABBY: Tell "HATES BASEMENTS" that I, for one, prefer to entertain my guests in my "basement" (we call it our "rec room") because I am tired of having guests who, after a couple of drinks, will thoughtlessly set a highball glass down on my baby grand piano. Or place a lit cigarette on the edge of a table (or ashtray) and go off and forget about it while the cigarette rolls off onto the rug for table! leaving a nice rectangular burn mark. At every party I have ever had, at least one drink was either spilled or accidentally kicked over. And if it happens in the rec room, it's easier on my nerves.
